

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. Cordova 111-1923,
Eric Albert A. Gissberg,
East shore of Cook Inlet.

May 14, 1923.

*This is in lien of
No. 38.*

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Eric Albert A. Gissberg, whose post office address is Seldovia, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate a small movable plant at Anchor Point on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet for the mild curing or salting of salmon for commercial purposes; and to catch and prepare herring and codfish for market on a small scale in Halibut Cove, Kachemak Bay, within the Cook Inlet district of said reservation during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

also see 200.

1. That Permit No. Cordova-38, issued April 14, 1923, to said permittee, granting certain fishery operations, is hereby canceled, and in lieu thereof a new permit, granting the additional privilege of salting silver salmon, as herein specified, is issued to the permittee, in accordance with his request.

2. That the permittee may operate, on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet, between Bluff Point and Cape Starichkof, 100 fathoms of king salmon gill net and one 60-fathom salmon beach seine, such beach seine to be used for taking red salmon to be sold to local canneries, and silver salmon to be salted. That the pack of salmon shall not exceed ten (10) tierces of mild cured king salmon and fifty (50) barrels of salted silver salmon. Fresh salmon (other than king) may be sold to any company or individual authorized to operate within said district.

3. That the permittee may catch and prepare for commercial purposes not to exceed two hundred and fifty (250) barrels of herring (computed upon the basis of full barrels), one hundred (100) tons of dry salted herring, and ten (10) tons of codfish. That no restriction is imposed as to the kind and amount of fishing gear that may be used. Purse seines used in the taking of herring shall not be employed for the taking of salmon within the reservation.

4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

5. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
